Erik, just like the three “monsters” above suffered because of his horrible appearance. What about you? How important is a person’s physical appearance? Talk about this with your partner, and then present your ideas to the class. Use these questions to help you.

1- Do you want your boyfriend or girlfriend to be attractive?

Yes, I think my boyfriend would have to be attractive because otherwise I would not have noticed him, but once you are dating, the physical, for me, is the least important.

2- How important are the clothes person wears?

For me that a boy dresses well is very important, because I see if he is a person who likes to dress well and be well dressed, but I also like that it depends on the occasion that he is in a tracksuit or comfortable clothes.

3- Do you want your friends to be attractive?

No, it doesn't matter for me.

4- How do you react to a person who has a serious physical disability?

The way I would react would be to try to help him feel comfortable as he / she and I would try to make sure that if someone laughs at him / her they tell him that he / she has a problem and that they have to respect.

5- How do you think most people in your school react?

Most of the people would react as me but other people would laugh.
