

MONSTERS

	THE MONSTER OF VICTOR FRANKENSTEIN	QUASIMODO	THE ELEPHANT MAN
REAL PERSON OR CHARACTER ?	Character	Character	Real Person
WHO CREATED HIM?	Mary Shelley	Victor Hugo
WHEN ?	May 1817	1831
BOOK HE BELONGS TO	Frankenstein or the Modern Prometheus	The Hunchback of Notre-Dame
HIS PROBLEM	Victor's goal to generate life causes a great deal of pain through his ambition, selfishness, and hostility, both to himself and others	He was born deformed and ugly. He is in love with one lady but the problem is that this lady is in love with other man.	various deformations that led to the marginalization of most of the towns people,
COULD HE BE HAPPY?	No, because most part of the time he feels alone and betrayed	At the end of the book yes, because he is accepted in society.	When his mother was alive he was happy, but when his mother's die he became to fell sad and lonely.
HOW DID HIS LIFE END?	He took his own life because he felt bad	Quasimodo dies when he see Frollo smiling cruel, at Esmeralda's execution	They found Merrick dead at the age of 27